GATE ENTRY RFID TAGS

The Rainberry Lake Entry Gate is operated by a Radio-Frequency-Identification system that consists of a small sticker that is generally placed on the owner's vehicle windshield. To request RFID Tags, the owner must send an email with their name, address and phone number to RFID@rainberryvillas.com.

There is also a system called OpenPath that enables a resident to open the Entry Gate using their cellphone however this system is only to be used when the resident is traveling in a vehicle other than their own, e.g., rental, taxi, loaner or friend's vehicle. OpenPath@rainberryvillas.com
